Hi....I know things are crazy for you. Wanted you to know that police here are prepping for the potential return of truckers (and other malcontents) next week. It sounds like they may be attempting to block traffic to the Ambassador Bridge.
Fri, Feb 4, 7:37 PM
Thx man.
Let's try and connect this

Another flag for you: CBSA went to offer tow truck support to Windsor Police, said tow trucks are ready to go. Apparently police said they weren't interested, because they didn't have the officers to have an enforcement effort in conjunction with the tow trucks arrival.
